

COMMUNITY RECOGNITION PROGRAM

for profit & non-profit organizations

Do you know a Farmington business or organization that goes above and beyond? The Civility First Farmington Community Recognition Program honors and celebrates local businesses and non-profit organizations that demonstrate exceptional civility and respect in our community.

We're looking for organizations that consistently embody the 10 Traits of Civility First:

- Citizenship: Supporting local community events and engaging positively in the community.
- Compassion: Showing empathy and understanding towards customers and employees.
- Consideration: Being mindful of how business operations affect neighbors and the public.
- Courtesy: Consistently using polite language and practicing good manners.
- Inclusiveness: Creating a welcoming and accessible environment for everyone.
- Kindness: Performing small, thoughtful acts for customers or employees.
- Respect: Treating every individual with dignity and valuing different perspectives.
- Responsibility: Taking ownership of products, services, and commitments.
- Sincerity: Communicating honestly and transparently, with actions that align with values.
- Tolerance: Being open-minded and accepting of diverse opinions and preferences.

Nominate a Business or Organization Today!

Recognizing these organizations is simple, but your nomination makes a huge impact. It helps us showcase positive role models and inspires others to follow their lead. We accept nominations year-round, with a focus on specific traits each quarter:

Q1 (Jan-Mar): Sincerity & Courtesy Application Deadline: March 31

Q2 (Apr-Jun): Citizenship, Consideration & Responsibility Application Deadline: June 30

Q3 (Jul-Sep): Kindness & Compassion Application Deadline: September 30

Q4 (Oct-Dec): Tolerance, Respect & Inclusiveness Application Deadline: December 31

How to Nominate

It's easy! Visit the Community Relations Commission page on the City of Farmington website to fill out our online nomination form or scan the QR code from your phone. Paper forms are also available at City Hall and the Farmington Public Library.

Together, we can strengthen our community by celebrating civility, one business at a time.

A program of the Farmington Community Relations Commission

